PULASKI, TENN FRIDAY MORNING, OCT'R. 12, 1866.

Why does the letter R hold an enviable position? Because it is never found in sin, but always in temperance, industry, virtue and prosperity. It is the beginning of religion and the end of war.

An Irish dragoon, on hearing that his widowed mother had married since he quitted Ireland, exclaimed: "Murther! I hope she wont have a son older than mea: if she does I shall lose the estate."

MRS. ELLEN JUDD, a widow, residing near Indianapolis, Indiana, walks two miles and cuts a cord of wood every day, by which means she supports a large family of chil-

Tak following error in punctuation is good illustration of the use of the comma: At a banquet this toast was given: "Woman-without her, man is a brute." The reporter had it printed: "Woman, without her man, is a brute."

An editor and his wife were walking out in the bright moon-light one evening. The wife was of an exceedingly poetic nature, and said to her mate:

"Notice that moon; how bright, and calm, and beautiful !"

"Couldn't think of noticing it," replied the editor, "for anything less than the usual rates-two dollars for every ten lines."

What length ought a lady's crinoline to be? A little above two feet.
